Lloyds Auctioneers & Valuers is a trusted reseller of heavy equipment – from prime movers and tippers to tractors, industrial equipment and heavy plant and machinery.

Lloyds offers valuation and auctioneering for all manner of transport, mining and quarry machinery, such as earthmoving and mobile plant equipment.

If it needs to be lifted, transported, shovelled or even decimated – you can buy or sell it at Lloyds Auctions. Regular auctions are conducted online, as well as simulcast with live on-site traditional bidders.

The current Civil, Transport & Machinery auction has over 200 lots, all starting from $1, and includes items of drilling, mining, quarry machinery and heavy equipment which are going under the hammer May 26.

Lloyds Auctions offer a huge range of Civil, Transport & Machinery assets throughout Australia. A strong customer base and world class marketing provide unprecedented exposure and leading prices for large asset parcels.

Heavy equipment demand has increased as construction projects across the country soar. One of the benefits of selling and buying through auctions is the fast turnaround of work-ready equipment, meaning that assets can be put straight to work and there are no delays to upcoming projects.

Lloyds make it simple to sell, by looking after all marketing, inspections and delivery of assets.

It's also made it easy for buyers to have items delivered anywhere, with no-hassle transportation solutions.

Sell your assets with Lloyds Auctions risk-free. The current EOFY offer includes zero seller fees when selling heavy equipment over $50,000.

With large government contracts and consumer warehouses in each state, Lloyds Auctions currently employs well over 200 full time staff, a dedicated team of experts in their field across more than a dozen locations throughout Australia.

You will often see more than 100 auctions online at a time, presenting a mix of both new and pre-loved stock. Regular auctions include national used car auctions, fine art and jewellery, consumer goods such as whitegoods and appliances, luxury items and watches, wine and spirits, and much more.

The Lloyds Classic Car division is well known for setting the bar in Australian collectable car sales, holding the most Australian auction records for rare classics, muscle cars and barn finds.

As you would expect from Australia's greatest auction house, Lloyds offers clients an unprecedented level of expert advice for the sale or valuation of all types of plant, equipment and machinery. Services include:

- Auction Services: Including online, simulcast and traditional; both in-room and onsite Australia-wide.
- Tenders: Offering multiple realisation options on specialised or location specific assets.
- Valuations: Banks, financiers, insolvency practitioners, accountants and lawyers appreciate our team of Certified Valuers who have a broad equipment knowledge base with hundreds of years combined experience.
- Asset Management: Offering turn-key solutions, asset registers & data entry on special projects.

With over 150 years of combined experience in auctions, valuations and asset management the highly experienced, skilled and qualified team at Lloyds Auctions can offer the ultimate buying or selling experience.
