A large amount of Australia's unclaimed or lost packages will be auctioned this week for as little as $1.

More than 30 pallets of freight will go under the hammer at Lloyds Auctions over the next seven days.

That equates to more than 1000 items from major national courier companies where the parcels have been uncollected or the goods have been lost in transit.

Some of the items include a pair of Nike shoes, Donald Trump commemorative coins, Moët and Chandon champagne bottles, and luxury perfume.

The parcels can be rather quirky, with one of the items up for grabs being the Beatles Crosley record storage crate.

Other items going under the hammer include technology and appliances, clothing, cosmetics, hardware and kids' toys.
